

ANONYMOUS FAMILY PLANNING Q&A BOX

When a community member has a question about Family Planning...

They visit the nearest clinic or health centre, to ask an Anonymous question via the question slip, and place it into the box.

Healthcare professionals pick up the questions from the box and answer them based on their knowledge and experience.

Healthcare professionals put up the questions and answers on a bulletin by the community, so others can also read and learn more about Family Planning.